#instaGuam Thursday Nights with The Guam Food Trucks

Food trucks have taken Guam by storm! Every Thursday night, you can have your selection from a variety of local food trucks that each offer a unique, delicious menu.

The Guam Food Trucks collective gathers every Thursday night at Skinner Plaza in Hagåtña and keep their windows open from 5pm to 8pm. The courtyard behind the Guam Museum is an ideal spot for outdoor dining with stone benches, wide walkways, and manicured, picnic-ready grass. Food trucks of various shapes, colors, and cuisines line the perimeter of the courtyard, illuminating the sidewalk with lamps and festive lights. The collective makes outdoor dining fun and family-friendly, as the food trucks attract the community and feature dishes and treats that are not often found in typical restaurants. All you need for a casual and memorable al fresco dining experience is cash and an appetite for street food classics sizzling with a local flair.
